

College Credit Plus Textbook* Information:

In order to avoid confusion, please review the information below.

Lost and damaged books are the responsibility of the student. Students that fail or drop classes after the window are responsible for textbook charges accrued by Marietta City Schools.

If your child is taking courses on the Marietta High School Campus...

- The textbook will be provided to the student by the teacher
- All textbooks must be turned back in to the teacher at the end of the semester
- Students will be charged for textbooks that are not turned back into the teacher.

All students taking courses at a college campus or online need to FIRST go to Arletta Elder in the TMI Center for textbook information and purchase.

Students will NOT be able to purchase books at the college campus without evidence of having met with Arletta Elder first.

If your child is taking courses at a college campus...

There are three options for obtaining the textbooks that are needed

- 1) Textbooks can be checked out from the high school library, if available. You must check with Arletta Elder in the TMI center to see if the needed books are available. (Access codes can be purchased separately from the textbook)
 - a) These textbooks must be returned to the MHS TMI Center
 - b) Students will be charged for the price of the book if it is not returned by the due date. All due dates are the same as the rental due dates set by the college bookstore.
- 2) Textbooks can be rented from the college bookstore, if available. Marietta City Schools will pay the initial rental fee. A student/parent debit/credit card is required for renting textbooks.
 - a) These textbooks must be returned to the college bookstore by the due date.
 - b) The debit/credit card will be charged the replacement fee if the book is not returned by the due date or is damaged beyond use.
- 3) Textbooks can be purchased from the college bookstore if renting is not an option for a particular book. Marietta City Schools will pay the initial price of the textbook. (Access codes can be purchased separately from the textbook)
 - a) These textbooks must be returned to the MHS TMI Center.
 - b) The student will be charged for the price of the book if it is not returned. All due dates are the same as the rental due dates set by the college bookstore.

*Materials and supplies required by the course other than books and workbooks are the responsibility of the post secondary institution.

Some textbooks include access codes. The used textbook can be obtained from the TMI Center if available and the access code purchased separately at Barnes and Noble.
